

PUNISHMENT

4th international conference of SAFI
(Societas Aperta Feminarum in Iuris Theoria)

5th October to 7th October 2023

Campus Condorcet – Sorbonne (Paris)

5th October

Campus Condorcet – Bâtiment de recherche Nord (room 0.007 & room 0.010)

9.00

Room 0.010 | Greetings and Congress beginning

9.15-10.45 | Room 0.010

Chair: Chiara Magni (Roma Tre University/Tor Vergata University-Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne)

Keynote speakers: Ophélie Marrel (Conseillère juridique, CNCDH) and Céline Branaa-Roche (Responsable communication, CNCDH), Eduquer ou punir : l'enfermement des enfants à l'aune des droits fondamentaux

10.45

Patio (Bâtiment de recherche Nord) | Break

11.00-13.00

Room 0.010 | Panel 1: Grounding Punishment

Chair: Bertrand Guillarme (CNRS/Université Paris 8)

Hsin-Wen Lee (University of Delaware), The Moral Justification Problem of Criminal Punishment in a Liberal Democracy

Przemysław Zawadzki (Jagiellonian University in Krakow), Debunking Retributive Justice

Fernanda Miranda (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona), The joint course of judgement and punishment: a philosophical approach

Room 0.007 | Panel 2: Justice, Punishment and Forgiveness in the History of Philosophy

Chair: Giulia Battistoni (University of Verona/Boston University)

Claudia Melica (University of Trento/Sapienza-University of Rome), Forgiveness and Punishment in Hegel

Chiara Magni (Roma Tre University/Tor Vergata University-Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne), Le rétributivisme pénal chez le jeune Hegel

Petros Satrazanis (University College Dublin), The mortal fate of Man and Punishment as an existential challenge

Franziska Dübgen (University of Münster), A Transformative Critique of Punishment. Envisioning a Different Conception of Justice based on a Critical Reading of Nietzsche

13.00

RU Condorcet | Lunch break

14.30-16.30

Room 0.010 | Panel 3: Crime and Society

Chair: Véronique Champeil-Desplats (Université Paris Nanterre/SFPJ)

Rodrigo Maruy van den Broek (Humboldt-Universität), Droit pénal, droit moderne ? Un débat entre Durkheim et Foucault

Badrinath Rao (Kettering University), Interrogating the philosophy of crime and punishment in the United States

Eva Yguico (Harvard University), The Myth of Crime-Fighting Police

Room 0.007 | Panel 4: Literature and Punishment

Chair: Alix Stéphan (Université Paris 8)

Sophie Rothé (Université de Tours), Punir le système carcéral : les armes littéraires de Sade et Mirabeau enfermés

Elisabetta Orlandi (Independent scholar), It's only fair... or not? Punishment in European folktales

Françoise Vanhamme (Université d'Ottawa), La justice pénale dans les romans, du XIXème au XXIème siècle

Ophélie Colomb (Université de Bordeaux), Punir les mineurs : droit et littérature dans L'enfant criminel de Jean Genet

16.30

Patio (Bâtiment de recherche Nord) | Break

16.45-18.45

Room 0.010 | Panel 5: The Challenges of Impunity

Chair: Kristin Albrecht (University of Salzburg)

Aleida Luján-Pinelo (University of Turku), Punishment and criminalization of femi(ni)cide

Giulia Battistoni (University of Verona/Boston University), Grounding punishment for environmental offences

Ana C. Gómez Sierra (Purdue University), Humanitarian wars and impunity

Room 0.007 | Panel 6: Fem! – Defamation, Largely in a Legal Vacuum

Chair: Sabrina Zucca-Soest (Helmut-Schmidt-Universität)

Zita Küng (Lawyer, organizational developer), Defamation – Defining and legally grasping it

Barbara Degen (Lawyer, Feminist Legal Institute, Haus der Frauen Geschichte in Bonn), Questions of morality and ethics

Ulrike Reiche (Banking specialist & business analyst), Why organizations need to address defamation

Claudia Gigler (FH Joanneum, journalist), The role of the media and strategies against loss of control

6th October

Campus Condorcet – Bâtiment de recherche Sud (room 0.030 & room 0.033)

9.15-10.15

Room 0.033 | SAFI meeting!

10.15

Faculty club | Break

10.30-12.30

Room 0.033 | Round table with institutions involved in the prison environment

Chair: Magali Bessone (Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne)

Prune Missoffe (Observatoire International des prisons – Section française) ; velyne Sire Marin (Ligue des droits de l'Homme) ; Samra Lambert (Syndicat de la magistrature), Quels droits pour les personnes détenues ?

12.30

RU Condorcet | Lunch break.

14.00-16.00

Room 0.033 | Panel 7: Gender in Prisons

Chair: Jenny Frinchaboy (Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne)

Pauline Jacobs (Tilburg University), Transgender behind bars

Olivia Nederlandt (UCLouvain Saint-Louis – Bruxelles), Femmes détenues en Belgique : une vulnérabilité accrue au sein d'une institution androcentrée

Aurore Vanliefde (KU Leuven), When the gender binary shapes punishment: how sex segregation impacts detained trans people and gender minorities

Sujatha Subramanian (Ohio State University), When Global Governance Intersects with Caste: Studying the Punishment of Girls in India's Juvenile Justice System

Room 0.030 | Panel 8: Caring and Punishing?

Chair: Claudia Gigler (FH Joanneum)

Emily Humbert (Coastal Carolina University), The Carceral Subversiveness of Canine-Training Prison Programs in the United States

Céline Hoog (University of Bern), Patient Autonomy in Prison – Legally Enforced Medical Treatment Beyond Human Dignity?

Kathryn Petrozzo (University of Utah), Mental Illness as a Life Sentence: The (Mis)treatment of Psychiatric Disorders in the Courtroom, and Beyond

16.00

Faculty club | Break

16.30-18.00 | Room 0.033

Chair: Ciara Luxton (Sciences Po)

Keynote speaker: Helen Brown Coverdale (University College London), Care and Punishment

7th October

Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne – room Cavallès & room Halbwachs

10:00-12:00

Room Halbwachs | Panel 9: Scientific Framework and Tools and the Juridical System

Chair: Kristin Albrecht (University of Salzburg)

Mikołaj Iwański (Jagiellonian University in Krakow), From punishment to nudge. How behavioral science can affect criminal policy

Vera Moser (University of Bern), The Influence of Worldviews on Criminal Policy – From Newtonian Mechanics to Preventive Detention

Alessia Farano (LUISS University), The legitimation of ius puniendi via science. The case of expert witness

Pia Levičnik (Université du Luxembourg), Pre-crime and punishment: the transformation of punishment through algorithmic risk assessment tools

Room Cavallès | Panel 10: Abolitionism

Chair: Juliana Talg (LMU Munich)

Francesco Testini (Jagiellonian University in Krakow), Is punishment necessary? Abolitionism, restitution, and the inevitability of punishment

Ludovica Picchi (Sapienza University of Rome), On another idea of Justice: the democracy of abolition, between Walter Benjamin and Angela Davis

Julian Sheldon (University of Toronto), Prison Abolitionism and Utopia

12.00

Bouillon Racine | Lunch break

14.00-16.00

Room Halbwachs | Panel 11: Authoritarian Regimes and Punishment

Chair: Sabrina Zucca-Zoest (Helmut-Schmidt-Universität)

Alice Dejean de la Bâtie (Tilburg University) – Tom Theuns (Leiden University), Punishing Democrats: the misuse of criminal law penalties in competitive authoritarian states

Jue Jiang (University of London), China's Punitive Regime Governing Homosexuality: A Critical Overview Starting from the Conviction and Punishment of Authors Penning, Publishing, and Selling Homosexual Fiction

Silvia Donzelli (Regensburg University), Between memory and impunity: reenacting perpetration of mass killings in movies and theatre

Room Cavallès | Panel 12: Alternative Perspectives to Punishment

Chair: Nora Stirn (Sciences Po)

Emma Dore-Horgan (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam), Restoration, Three: Punishment, Nil

Magali Bessone (Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne), Forgiveness as an essential by-product of reparative justice

Idoia Quintana Domínguez (Université de Deusto), Le châtement et le pardon : Analyse de leur relation à la lumière du cas basque

16.00 | Break

16.15-17:30 | Room Halbwachs

Chair: Alix Stéphan (Université Paris 8)

Keynote speaker: Julie Saada (Sciences Po), Juger les crimes de masse : quel concept de responsabilité ?

17.30

Room Halbwachs | Conclusions

Congress' coordinators: Chiara Magni and Alix Stéphan (spokeswomen of SAFI in France)
Co-Organizers: Prof. Magali Bessone, Prof. Franck Fischbach, Dr. Sabrina Zucca- Soest

With the financial aid from the PhD school of philosophy at the University of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne.

With the patronage of : World Congress of Philosophy; Commission nationale consultative des droits de l'homme; Roma Tre University; Tor Vergata University; Société française pour la philosophie et la théorie juridiques et politiques; Observatoire de l'Intelligence artificielle de Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne; Observatoire International des prisons – Section française; Ligue des droits de l'Homme; Syndicat de la magistrature; Deutsche Juristinnenbund e.V.; feministische fakultät; Hegel Now!; International Association of Women's Museum.

With the support of Nomos and Deutsche Gesellschaft für Philosophie e.V.

ABOUT SAFI

SAFI is an interdisciplinary network for the promotion of women researching law. The aim is to network internally, and to organize and to cooperate on various levels. In this way, academics can present their research to the outside world in a high-profile setting, and outstanding research by women can become established in science in the long-term. Membership is open to everyone regardless of gender or disciplinary.