Thursday 28 May 2026

Amphitheater: Simone Veil

8h30-9h45: Welcoming Participants

10h00-10h45: Welcoming Remarks

10h45-11h45: Keynote Speaker: Dr. A. R. Sriskanda Rajah

11h45-13h05: Panel 1 Historical Legacies and Global Order

This panel examines how historical legacies shape the global order through militarism, queer and trans inclusion in the American neoliberal empire, and worldmaking in a multipolar Global South.

14h30-16h00: Panel 2 Geopolitics, Humanitarianism and Global Order

This panel explores how shifting geopolitics reshape global order, focusing on financial adaptation to sanctions, the evolving role of humanitarian assistance, and the growing challenges of accountability for transboundary harm in a deglobalizing world.

Closing Remarks and Open Discussion 16h00-16h30

Friday 29 May 2026

Amphitheater: Simone Veil

8h30-9h45: Welcoming Participants

10h00-10h30: Welcoming Remarks

10h30-12h00: Panel 1 Global Governance, Crisis and Emerging Powers

This panel examines how crisis and emerging powers are reshaping global governance, from the evolution of post-American financial systems to experiments in Indo-Pacific multipolarity and the limits of pandemic knowledge and global health coordination.

12h00-13h30: Panel 2 Digital Politics, Informal Governance and Accountability

This panel explores how digital politics and informal governance shape accountability, from online disinformation's impact on democracy to informal economic practices in Nigeria and the challenges of enforcing constitutional accountability after January 6.

15h00-16h00: Roundtable: Key Insights and Conclusions

An open, collaborative discussion addressing key issues and synthesizing the conference and book's central insights and conclusions.

Closing Remarks 16h00-16h15
