

LAWTTIP Final Expert Meeting

8 July 2019, 17:00-19:00

European Conference Centre Albert Borschette
Room 3.B
Rue Froissart 36
1040 Etterbeek, Bruxelles

The LAWTTIP Final Expert Meeting will gather together key staff members of the LAWTTIP Network, European and national civil servants belonging to the main institutions involved in the New Generation Free Trade Agreements' negotiations and implementation and stakeholders from business organisations and NGOs. It will offer a unique opportunity to summarise the main practical contributions of the Network and to identify future challenges for NGFTAs implementation. The meeting is moreover intended to single out the lessons to be learned from the NGFTAs model, at International, European and national level.

The LAWTTIP Final Expert meeting is intended to:

- contribute to disseminating the main findings of the LAWTTIP Network
- help assess the social and political impact of the research project at European and national level
- promote a form of political accountability of the LAWTTIP project vis-à-vis European and national decision-makers and relevant interest groups

Among the speakers, Colin Brown (Deputy Head of the Dispute Settlement and Legal Aspects of Trade Policy Unit, Directorate-General for Trade, European Commission), Stephanie Leupold (Head of the Trade Strategy Unit, Directorate-General for Trade, European Commission); Sir Francis Jacobs (King's College London) and Prof. Marc Maresceau (University of Ghent).

Afterwards, the LAWTTIP Network will offer Drinks at Pepete & Ronron Jourdan (Rue Froissart 1 – 1040 Etterbeek, Bruxelles).

For security reasons all participants and attendees are kindly requested to fill in the form available at <https://ec.europa.eu/eusurvey/runner/LawTTIPfinalexpertmtg>. The mandatory registration via this link closes Sunday 7 July at 11:00 PM.

